

A large rectangular area for handwriting practice. It is bounded by a solid blue line. Inside, there are four sets of horizontal dashed blue lines, each set consisting of two lines. These dashed lines divide the interior into five horizontal sections of equal height, providing a guide for letter height and placement.